We are extremely lucky to be one of 22 restaurants in the UK to receive a very limited amount (3 bottles) of this incredibly rare Champagne. The other restaurants were Claridges, Core, The Fat Duck, Petrus, The Westbury & The Ritz to name a few - so we feel very humbled. Charles Heidsieck have only ever released five vintages of Cuvée Champagne Charlie prior to this one - 1979, 1981, 1982, 1983 & 1985 so this release has been highly anticipated & you are very unlikely to ever meet anyone who's tasted it!

“Deep garnet-purple coloured 2019 Scarecrow hits the ground running with bold expressions of crème de cassis, wild blueberries and chocolate covered cherries. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is laden with layer upon layer of tightly packed mineral-sparked black fruit flavours, framed by super plush tannins and absolutely seamless freshness, finishing long, long, long! This expression of the venerable J.J. Cohn vineyard including vines planted in 1945 by John Daniel is pure magic.”
